

THE COMPARATIVE YIELDS

How Tonopah Sizes up With the Reno Star.

A few days ago The Journal hazarded the guess that the Reno Star mine was the greatest producer in the State of Nevada. That assertion is positively true as regards any other individual mine in this State. Major Ingalls of the M & S Press—a staunch friend of The Journal—who is now at Tonopah on business for his publication sends the following communication to prove that the camp of Tonopah is producing far greater values than Mr. Sparks' mine. This is conceded and The Journal rejoices with the happy people of Tonopah. No paper outside of that camp watches Tonopah as closely as does The Journal and none publishes as much regarding the camp which The Journal is convinced is the coming mining camp of the West. Here is what our friend writes:

Editor Journal: In your issue of the 8th inst. a comparison was made between the daily output of the Tonopah mines and that of the Reno Star mine. The writer, having recently visited both camps and received only the kindest treatment from the same, having examined the properties of each camp has nothing but praises and kind words for each.

The figures given by The Journal as to the daily output of the Reno Star mine are $9000.

I give you the following figures carefully compiled regarding the daily output of the Tonopah mines. Mizpah ledge—shipping ore only—averaging $150 to $200 per ton from Lynch, Sullivan and O'Meara lease $1000. Cutting and Edwards lease $1700. Tonopah Company, $1000. Others $1000. From Burro ledge $1000. From Valley View ledge $1000. Milling ore which are thrown on the dumps, averaging $10 to $100 per ton. $2500. The total is $10,000.

Can it be taken by anybody in Tonopah to remove as little as possible of second-class ore from the mines and three-fourths of such is still in the various shafts and drifts in place.

The next two and a half months will add fifty per cent to the above figures as new hoisting machinery is being placed in position on many of the claims here.

The values are increasing and the ledges continue in size and depth in attainment.

The Journal has a great many friends in the camp and the writer believes it deserves only facts and a wish to do justice to everybody, therefore the writer trusts that this communication will find a place in its valuable columns. Surely Reno can afford to rejoice with every other live mining camp in this wonderfully rich region.

The cost of transportation from Tonopah with smelting charges are $40 per ton. The amount of royalty paid the company here is 25 per cent therefore only ore valued at $100 per ton is shipped but is thrown on the dump awaiting future treatment here or the completion of a railroad from Sodeville to this place.

There are today ten thousand dollars worth of milling ore on the various dumps that will run from $40 to $100 per ton. This with the amount of milling ore now in place and exposed in shafts and drifts, will convince any intelligent mining or railroad man of the profitableness of constructing such a railroad, which construction will greatly benefit Reno.

New Lunch Counter.

The Sacramento lunch counter will be opened in a day or two in the rear of the Sacramento beer hall. The new restaurant has been handsomely fitted up. A big range has been installed. There will be private dining rooms, with rear entrances. Another announcement will appear in a day or two.

TERSE AND TO THE POINT

Little Bits of Items, but Still Worthy of Mention.

Light northerly wind is prophesied for today.

B. D. North has accepted a clerkship at the Riverside Hotel.

Work was begun yesterday excavating for the foundations of the new Riverside Hotel.

A letter from J. J. Ryan of Washington City is in Reno being treated for a broken arm.

Nevada has received a silver medal in award for its mineral display at the Pan American Exposition.

The next football game will take place Saturday. The Reliance team will play the U. of N. on the local grounds.

An amusing sight was witnessed on the streets of Reno yesterday. An ice wagon was seen making its way toward the Reno Star mine loaded with coal.

Another enjoyable party will be given by the Sierra Club at its hall near Hudson's. These parties are the center of the social life on the Truckee Meadows.

Harry Davis proprietor of the Model has just been receiving a line of novelties that must be seen to be appreciated. He carries a choice assortment of sheet music. All the latest songs.

He May Locate in Reno Again.

Robert H. Lindsey Jr. arrived yesterday morning from Montana where he attended the funeral of his uncle, a Batterman who died at Butte, at a short time since.

Mr. Lindsey will remain in Reno a few days renewing the acquaintances and visiting the scene of his boyhood days. He thinks it not unlikely that his father will in the near future return to Reno to resume the practice of law here.

SAVE AN EXAMINATION FEE.

By going to the Frank Golden Jewelry Store and having your eyes examined free of charge by the only optician in Nevada. Glasses fitted and adjusted in a scientific manner.

Tendered Farewell Banquet.

A farewell banquet was tendered to Frank Coffin in the Arcade restaurant Sunday evening. Mr. Coffin is about to return to Bakersfield.

The following friends of the honored guest put their feet under the mahogany: George Tranter, Sam Amankoh, Charles Richardson, Wall Alekings, Neil Conn, Tom Biggs, George Graff, Morris Jacobs, Charles Coffin, Louis Sauer, John Sunderland, J. W. A. Keddle, Sid Foster, George Lamb, Charles McBurnie and Sam Mozingo. Music was furnished by Schwert's orchestra.

John Sunderland officiated as toastmaster. A number of neat speeches were made. Sam Amankoh was the center of the occasion. If a stenographer had been present doubtless the latter's address would have been handed down to posterity.

THE SUNDAY SERVICES

Brief Extracts from a Few of the Sermons.

On request of church people of various denominations. The Journal agreed to reproduce each week abstracts of the Sunday sermons delivered in all the pulpits, believing that by this means the views of religious forces in this city would be advanced.

The first installment was a representation but gradually they have been dropping out until this morning only the Congregational and Unitarian of America remain. Evidently there is not a very strong leaning on the part of the other denominations to have this work continued. The installment will be kept in another week and it is no more likely to be taken in this space will be filled with authentic accounts of dog fights, drunkard rollings and other matters of general interest to the reading public.

CONGREGATIONAL.

The conversion of St. Paul and the influence of his teachings in the development of the church and upon modern thought was the interesting subject of the morning service in the evening sermon was on "Potential Helps in the Formation of Character." These were described as intimate acquaintances with return the companionship of noble minds, true, one in mind, discipline, willing sacrifice and most potent of all the sincere religious life.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA.

The Volunteer of America's meeting was held last night during last night in the Armory near the bridge at Virginia street. Instrumental music and songs were rendered and the hall kept pleasantly warmed in the cold evenings. Sunday afternoon Lieut. Marsh, Ash led the meeting and an instrumental trio was played by Captain Ash, Mrs. Hopkinson and Lieut. Ash. The evening service was made interesting by a good temperance talk by the captain and a duct. Ashland of J. A. F. (L. V. B.) by Mrs. Hopkinson and the Lieutenant. A good musical and a play at the evening, at the Virginia street every night.

Next Company to Play Here.

The first performance in this city of that powerful dramatic play "The Convicts' Daughter" will occur on Tuesday, October 23, at McKissick Opera House. Very few plays of the present day have jumped into such popularity as "The Convicts' Daughter." It ranks and a series itself with such plays as "Shirley Vives," "The Christian and Love's Lane."

No picture story has ever been told. The author has reached the top-most point of intense, honest interest, sweetness and whole-someness. True it has a complex production of wonderful technical devices, startling electrical effects, and a wealth of beautiful scenery, but it is the happy combination of all that gives the results and with a cast of unequalled ability, an evening's entertainment is an assured fact.

Southern homes are noted for their picturesque and pretty surroundings among the trees and flowers. With an open home like peace and comfort to the curtain goes up on just such a scene (Col. Leslie Kentucky home). "The Convicts' Daughter" seems to divide itself among the entire audience. Sunshine and happiness only exists here until the dark shadow of the villainous, but confidential clerk of Col. Gould throws its gloom over the household.

Spurred by the girl he loves, he forgoes his manhood and plots her ruin. All lovers of the magic drama should see this powerful play at the earliest opportunity. You cannot afford to miss it.

Kicks Without Good Cause.

A Virginia paper takes umbrage at the fact that nearly all the pavilion awards were granted to Reno people. This is a silly criticism as, had the writer of the criticism been present at the State Fair and not have devoted all his time to the betting ring, he would have observed that 95 per cent of the exhibits were made by Reno people. With a few laudable exceptions all the articles placed on exhibition were produced in this town. Outside of Reno there was a lamentable lack of interest in the fair exhibits. It was in reality a Reno fair.

The Comstock paper says: The Consolidated California & Virginia Company was awarded a prize of $500 for its exhibit at the State Fair. The Journal publishes a full list of prizes awarded, 98 per cent of which were captured by Reno residents. The name of that town appears so numerous in the award list that it is reminiscent of a St. Louis hotel bill of fare, in which the only article of food mentioned was catfish served in a variety of ways, the item of dessert reading more catfish. — Virginia Report.

A MINING SUIT BROUGHT

Former Nevada Soldier Sues for a Big Sum.

Chancellor Derby Morrison, a native of the Comstock and brother of the late Captain Morrison of the First Nevada Volunteers, has brought suit in Salt Lake against Alvias E. Snow of that city.

The complaint sets forth that on April 12, 1900, Morrison was the owner of mining claims in Humboldt county, Nevada. On that date he says he agreed to convey the claims to Alvias E. Snow in trust for a corporation to be formed and Snow was to form the corporation at his own cost. Of the 400,000 shares of stock 100,000 was to remain in the treasury and Snow and Morrison were to have 150,000 each. The corporation was duly formed, the stock divided and an agreement made that neither should sell any shares of his stock until the treasury was disposed of.

Snow, it is alleged, further represented to Morrison that, in order to raise money to pay the indebtedness of the company and carry on operations an assessment on the stock was necessary, well knowing that Morrison was unable to pay an assessment. Then, says the complaint, Snow offered Morrison $550 for his 150,000 shares, or $90 for 15,000 shares, payable $100 cash and $100 monthly. Relying upon Snow's representations, Morrison says, he agreed to sell the 145,000 shares at the price offered and received the $100 cash and four notes.

He found that Snow sold 30,000 shares of the treasury stock for not less than 2 cents a share and that an assessment was not necessary.

It further alleged that the mining claims were and are now worth more than $20,000 and the stock worth at least 5 cents a share. A temporary injunction has been granted.

(Morrison is agent for the Central Pacific Company at Humboldt House station.)

EXCELLENT SUGGESTION

How the Nevada State Fair Could Be Improved.

Joseph H. Brearley, member of the executive committee of the State Agricultural Society and Superintendent of the Pavilion, has a suggestion to offer through The Journal regarding the methods that should be pursued in the future by the management of the State fair.

Mr. Brearley has made a study of the conditions that prevailed this year and is of the opinion that the State Fair could be not only put on a paying basis but could be made much more attractive and beneficial to Reno and to the State by barring foreign race horses and permitting nothing but Nevada stock to compete in the races and keeping out foreign bookmakers.

This would encourage raising rapid stock in this State and give the races more local interest. Bettors would also be more protected.

A greater effort should be made to have the pavilion and stock exhibits more representative of the industries of the State. So long as the fair is preponderantly a race meet it is here to make it attractive to people all over Nevada, who would attend if the fair was pre-eminently a Nevada matter, planned chiefly to advertise the resources of the State.

The Journal concurs in Mr. Brearley's suggestion. He is a man who is working and spending his money to uphold the State and his suggestion is well worthy of attention.

WORSE THAN PUEURILE.

THE Lovelock Argus publishes the law relative to the election of United States Senators, enacted by the legislature in 1899, also an article from The Journal on the subject, and says:

"It carried out it means that there will be no more corruption in the election of United States Senator as the News says, no member of the legislature can ignore the choice or expression of public sentiment in regard to a Senator, especially when the member is of the same political faith as the candidate receiving the popular vote."

While that is all right as far as it goes, it is hardly to the point. Every candidate to the legislature should be pledged to vote for the candidate for United States Senator receiving the highest number of votes whether of his political faith or not. It is the only way by which the letter or spirit of the law, or the desired amendment to the Federal constitution, can be carried into effect. It must be done by agreement of all political parties in the State to render it effective. We have never heard a member of any party in Nevada express himself except in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment, and none who so hold can reasonably object to a method which would practically accomplish the same end.

But some of the Republicans who have spoken to the writer upon the subject, while they all profess to favor the amendment, declare their unwillingness to adopt the method which enables precisely the same result. They have but one reason to give for their opposition, and that is a ridiculously foolish and flimsy one. They say it would empower the voters of one county to dictate to the legislative members of other counties how to vote for United States Senator. That is worse than begging the question. It is downright stultification of their own professions. How would it be if we were acting under the proposed constitutional amendment? Would not every voter have a voice in the selection of Senator and would not everyone have the right to vote his choice for a representative in the upper house of Congress, who would not represent any particular county or counties but the entire State? It is a distinction without difference, and hardly even a distinction. The enabling law empowers the people to do indirectly what the constitutional provision prevents them from doing directly, and a thing which everybody, even the objectors, profess to be in favor of. While the form of election by the legislature would have to be complied with, if the law is accepted as was intended by those who enacted it it will be but a mere form and everything that could be effected by the constitutional change—the practical election by popular vote—would be the result.

If the objectors were wise they would follow the example of the United States Senate in refusing to submit the proposed amendment to the people of the different States—attempt no argument but simply refuse to avail themselves of the enabling law of the State. It would be better for them, for there can be no argument advanced against the State law that will not apply with equal force to the constitutional amendment, and opposition to the former, coupled with assent to the latter is as contradictory as advocacy in the same breath of free trade and a large protective tariff.

PARTY PLATFORMS.

WHILE there are certain fundamental principles which never change, and which never should be changed, if party platforms were merely statements of such principles there would be no need to change them every four years for the first one formulated would hold good for all time. That would be an absurdity. Platforms are from necessity temporary and must be changed to conform to the condition of the times as they exist. A party, if successful may remedy an evil that it complains of, or it may become a past issue from other causes. A platform has served its purpose when the conditions have so changed that it is no longer applicable to them. While it is true that a national platform is the latest authoritative announcement of a party and can only be changed by the next national convention, it does not follow that strict allegiance is due to it in the meantime, by State or other minor conventions when other issues have sprung up and necessity compels their facing as they exist. While it is not necessary, or right for a party to repudiate a platform for which it honestly fought, it must look to the present and future, and not to the past, for the conditions that will determine the character of the one next to be adopted. That is good sense, good policy and good principle. This is an age of progress, and a political party to succeed must keep up with the times.

The campaign of 1904 will be fought upon different lines in some respects from those of 1896 and 1900. Bimetallism will never be repudiated or abandoned by the Democratic party. It will ever remain one of its cardinal principles but if the conditions be then as at present, it may be wisdom to wait a more favorable time for exploiting it—a time which is sure to come sooner or later in the natural evolution of financial events. Abeyance is far from abandonment, and as there is an overwhelming majority of the party that believes in the principle as strongly now as in 1896 and 1900 there is not the slightest danger of its lapsing into more than temporary retirement or seclusion. But Democrats cannot get together as long as any considerable portion of them insist on strict adherence to the letter of former platforms, while another element as strongly insists on their disavowal and an admission that they were wrong. Both of these elements are wrong, and if success is to be achieved, they must be reconciled and brought to a realization of the fact that harmony is the only hope for the party, and the additional fact that the campaign of 1904 must be fought and conducted upon the issues of 1904.

THE Elufeka Sentinel makes The Journal editor considerably more than an octogenarian. Its types make him say that he knew the late Judge Harmon "nearly four score years." Nearly two score is what we said. While old age is honorable, we don't covet more longevous honors than we are entitled to. Besides, we most solemnly protest against the Sentinel compositor monkeying with dates as recorded in the old family bible at our ancestral home away down east.

A BIGGER har than Sam Patch" is no longer a permissible expression in polite society. The proper thing to say now is "His word is as unreliable as a naval log."—Carson Appeal. While Sam Patch was a celebrated jumper, we never before knew him to be quoted as a proverbial prevaricator. Davis was the hind name of the only Sam who ever gained any great celebrity in that line that we ever heard of. Probably the Appeal meant Tom Pepper, who tradition hath it, was kicked out of tophet for telling the devil that his buckskin trouser-locks were made out of tanned tripe.

THERE is considerable talk of enlarging or rebuilding the White House at Washington. The Journal has no objection, although it is constrained to remark that it feels more interest in the erection of a government building at Reno.

ALL AROUND THE STATE

A Few Gleaned Paragraphs of Nevada News.

Rev. G. H. Stronfeld says there is no foundation for the report published that he would be transferred from Elko to Carson.

Dr. A. E. Jackman, for many years surgeon for the Southern Pacific Company at Wadsworth, has tendered his resignation.

A Comstock man who fractured his knee while participating in a three-legged race on the Fourth of July, is now just able to be out.

The V. & T. railroad shops at Carson are crowded with work and employees are working overtime.

Pears weighing one pound each are raised on the Briner ranch ten miles west of Wadsworth.

The League of American Sportsmen has been organized in Carson with forty members.

The Virginia & Truckee Railroad Company has entered into a new contract with the Western Union Telegraph Company, whereby the latter is constructing a new line along the track from Reno to Empire. There will be new poles and new wires. From Empire on to the Comstock the railroad company has an excellent line, which will not require replacing for some time to come.

John Fanning, one of the oldest residents of Empire, died last Wednesday. He was 66 years of age and a native of Ireland.

The Truckee Republican reports that there is a pile of wood at the Floriston paper mill that is a wonder. It is wood that has been run down a flume and the pile resembles a huge mining dump. It must contain at least 10,000 cords.

The railroad from Reno to Virginia City, Nevada, during the bonanza days of the Comstock made the largest earnings of any railroad in the world.

Tom Horn, the Pinkerton detective, who, it is alleged, robbed the faro bank at the Palace in this city several years ago, is reported to be dying at Denver.

Brakeman J. A. Child had a narrow escape from being killed near Iron Point Tuesday night. While walking along the top of the train he stumbled and fell between two cars. He struck the draw-heads of the cars in such a manner as to be thrown to one side, clearing the rail and rolling down the embankment out of danger. It is one of the mysteries sometimes attending such accidents that he was not run over and either killed or maimed. As it was, the brakeman picked himself up and was able to board the train again. He sustained no other injury than a sprained ankle.—Winnemucca Silver State.

Thyres does strictly a liquor business, he carries the stock and can do better by you than any house in the town, give him a trial.

The Monarch Saloon Company is putting on extra barkeepers to draw its celebrated Anheuser-Busch. It is the only eastern keg beer in Reno.

Don't let your chimneys burn out and endanger your property. Hamp & Sims will clean them thoroughly and at little cost. Masonic building, Tel. red 185.

The Washoe Lunch Counter and bar have built up an immense trade by serving only the best to their patrons. Messrs. Clausen & Block are experienced caterers.

The Snug saloon is the coziest resort in Reno. The place is patronized by good, jolly people. The choicest brands of liquors and cigars. Pringle & Carroll proprietors.

MINING IN THIS STATE

Culled News of Nevadas' Most Important Industry.

Last week's ore shipments from Eschscholtz were 180 tons and from White Pine, 52 tons.

The Hesperian machinery was unloaded yesterday afternoon. It will be hauled to the site of the first well as soon as teams can be secured. Mr. Lowe went out to look over the road this afternoon.—Elko Independent.

Following is the ore extraction report of the Con. Cal. & Va. for last week: hoisted 210 cars, being part of the ore stored in the mine and mined during the week—assay value $51.73— and 150 cars second grade, assaying $14.81.

We are informed that the smelter at Golconda is being painted inside and out and that some new machinery, which has arrived from the East is being put in place at the mill. It is the general opinion of the people of Golconda that the smelter will be started up soon.—Central Nevada.

The Tonopah Miners' Union intend to erect a hospital for its sick members. A good move.

WHAT'S YOUR FACE WORTH?

Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of Liver Trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give Clear Skin, Rosy Cheeks, Rich Complexion. Only 25 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Hodgkinson's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

TWO WORTHY SOCIETIES

The St. Agnes and St. Margaret Guilds' Good Work.

ST. AGNES SOCIETY.

The members of St. Agnes' Society were most charmingly entertained at their last regular meeting by Mrs. George J. Smith at her beautiful home at 417 Washington street.

Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon and social converse and friendly greetings caused the hours to pass all too quickly.

St. Agnes' Society was organized in January of this year, and, as the constitution states, its object is for social enjoyment and any other worthy object. Considerable money has been disbursed in charity and several worthy persons have been helped.

St. Agnes' Society contemplates giving a Violet Tea early in November, when many articles of dainty handwork, which the members are now at work upon, will be disposed of.

The officers of the society are composed of the following named ladies: President, Mrs. P. L. Flanagan; vice-president, Mrs. Wm. Webster, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. George J. Smith; treasurer, Mrs. James O'Neill.

Among the ladies, who enjoyed Mrs. Smith's hospitality were: Mrs. Wm. Webster, Jr., Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. C. Gilling, Mrs. J. S. Hawk, Mrs. Harold Duncan, Mrs. G. Mahan, Mrs. J. B. Cain, Mrs. F. D. King, Mrs. L. E. Richter, Misses Minnie Flanagan, Agatha Henry, Katherine Sayers, Miss Sayers, Mrs. J. P. Kelly and Mrs. Adams-Williams.

The next regular meeting of the society will be held a week from next Saturday at the home of Mrs. North, 811 University Avenue.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

SEEDS! SEEDS!

In order to facilitate the delivery of seeds, Mr. Newlands requests all those desiring a quota of seeds next spring, to send in their applications at the present time, thus assuring an earlier delivery than would otherwise be possible. Address all applications to Francis G. Newlands, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

STEPPED INTO LIVE COALS.

TOY CAUSES NIGHT ALARM.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. Fifty cents and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

TROUBLES OF TIMES-REVIEW.

In our last issue the knavish, irrepressible type, manipulated by our devil, made us declare that F. M. Ish, who arrived in Tonopah we chronicle, was a brother of Milton C. Ish of this place, when as a matter of fact, as set forth in the indisputable genealogical records the birth of the first named gentleman referred to in the article antedated that of Milton's mother by two years.

The dog poisoner is still at it, damn him. He got our dog this time and if that unclaimed seventy dollars reward offered sometime ago for the arrest and conviction of the midnight prowler, is not available, we will give the entire thirty-five cents in our cash box as a reward to any one who will give information leading even to the detection of this worse than fiend.

TOLD TO A POLICEMAN.

Mr. Charles Cahill, the self-styled pugilistic champion of the world, called at the Report office this morning and demanded an "extraction" of the statement that he had occupied a lower berth in the county jail as a guest of Sheriff Quirk last Wednesday evening. "Tell them I was not in jail this time, or I'll have the law on you," said Mr. Cahill this morning. The Report hastens to make the extraction which Mr. Cahill said was perfectly satisfactory after reading it.
